Dolce by Wyndham to open in Versailles

DOLCE BY WYNDHAM TO OPEN IN VERSAILLES: Wyndham Hotels & Resorts is set to open the upscale Dolce by Wyndham Versailles – Domaine du Montcel in France’s Yvelines region. Located close to the renowned Palace of Versailles, the property was once owned by the Oberkampf-Mallet family and has been renovated by France-based 2BDM Architects. As part of the renovation, the Toiles de Jouy print in the décor of the rooms was reinstated. Expected to open in December, the 178-room hotel includes 14 hectares of gardens surrounding the estate, two restaurants, a bar with a terrace, conference facilities with 18 meeting rooms and a 550-square-meter ballroom. Guests can also access a spa with a heated indoor and outdoor pool, a sensory shower, a sauna, a snow cave, a fitness center and seven treatment rooms. Part of Wyndham’s portfolio of 24 brands, Dolce by Wyndham has more properties in locations such as Italy, Denmark, Greece, Germany, Portugal, Brazil, the U.S. and Vietnam.
